

Safeguarding your Private Practice: The Essentials

Presented by Amanda Rowan, LCSW
and Robin Gluck, LMFT

Therapist Development Center: Provider #1449

Course format: Self-paced recorded audio lecture

Length: 6 hours

Continuing education credits: 6

About the Course

This course will provide participants with a deeper understanding of the role of the California Board of Behavioral Sciences (BBS), what constitutes unprofessional conduct and the ethical guidelines that inform our practice as mental health providers. This course will review key legal issues, as well as components of both the NASW and CAMFT Code of Ethics to help psychotherapists learn what behaviors can make them more vulnerable to disciplinary actions. This course will also provide psychotherapists an opportunity to reflect on their current practices and identify concrete steps they can take to safeguard their license or registration.

Instructors

- Amanda Rowan is an LCSW and the founder and CEO of the Therapist Development Center. Amanda graduated with honors from Dartmouth College, where she majored in Neuroscience. She earned her Masters in Social Welfare at UCLA. Since founding the Therapist Development Center in 2008, Amanda has prepared more than 100,000 therapists nationwide to pass their state licensing exams. She is a certified Gestalt Therapist who has worked with a wide variety of clients in a range of settings over the past 20 years. She is a highly effective instructor who has a passion for collaborating with seasoned therapists who understand what works because they do it every day.
- Robin Gluck is a Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist and Licensed Professional Clinical Counselor. She is the COO of Therapist Development Center. Robin was instrumental in creating the Law and Ethics Exam Prep Program and the MFT Clinical Written Exam. Robin has been teaching Law and Ethics to Associate MFTs since 2012 when she joined TDC. Robin has a Bachelor's Degree from Emory University, a Master's Degree in Public Policy from American University, and a Master's Degree in Marriage and Family Counseling from San Francisco State University.
